

NUJ Stitch-up

Position Paper - Précis

Judge James A Doerty, Washington Superior Court (Seattle) claimed that interviews by journalists with willing sources defined as harassment and that news gathering constituted illegal surveillance and stalking then jailed Paul Trummel "the Journalist" (approaching seventy years of age) without trial or legal counsel contrary to international law.

[\[Kafkaesque Experiences\]](#)

With full knowledge of the imminent jailing, Jeremy Dear, NUJ General Secretary and Claire S Kirby (then NUJ in-house solicitor) neglected to act under Vienna Convention and other international laws. They delayed then denied solidarity and support guaranteed by Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

[\[Solidarity\]](#)

[\[Solidarity Statements\]](#)

Timothy R Gopsill, Editor, Journalist (NUJ magazine) orchestrated a seven-year, media blackout to cover up the neglect by Dear and Kirby which prevented NUJ members from knowing about the case and providing their support. Gopsill also invoked an illegal prior restraint with British Broadcasting Corporation and Press Gazette then they followed suit.

[\[The Fifth Estate\]](#)

Doerty sent the NUJ Journalist to languish in jail for an indeterminate sentence without benefit of counsel where he had several near-death experiences. A pro bono criminal lawyer had him released after 111 days on a writ similar to habeas corpus.

[\[Metamorphosis\]](#)

During that four months, Dear and Kirby did nothing to secure the Journalist's release although kept fully apprised of the circumstances. That allowed Doerty to ratchet up the coercion and transfer him to incommunicado solitary confinement among murderers and rapists. This all predicated upon an ex parte (unethical, one-sided and strongly biased) communication with David C Broom, Seattle British Consul (falsely representing himself as Consul-General).

[\[Without Let or Hindrance\]](#)

Five international media and civil rights amicus curiae argued the case in Washington Supreme Court. In a unanimous finding by nine judges, supreme court reversed all Doerty's decisions which absolved the Journalist of wrongdoing.

[\[Washington Supreme Court\]](#)

Dear and Roy Martin Mincoff (present NUJ in-house solicitor), while feigning solidarity, colluded in a cover up of HM Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) dereliction by negotiating a £262,000.00 quid pro quo in a distinct conflict of interest with Gareth R Thomas MP (Harrow West), former Minister of State, Department for International Development and Jack Straw MP, former Secretary of State for Justice and Lord Chancellor.

[\[Quid Pro Quo\]](#)

The Law Society, Legal Complaints Service (LCS) has found probable cause that Kirby and Mincoff committed professional misconduct and initiated action by Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). Mincoff abused LCS resolution processes by providing false and misleading information to SRA. Additional complaints await filing.

[\[Mincoffs Flying Circus\]](#)

The supreme court findings prohibited future censorship, prior restraint, and Internet denial-of-service attacks upon printed and electronic publications. However, NUJ officials and officers continue to bring malicious claims of violation of NUJ rules; interfere with his rights as a journalist; file false and misleading criminal charges; and commit Internet denial-of-service attacks. Prior restraint and media blackouts continue which form part of several complaints to Press Complaints Commission.

[\[Press Complaints Commission\]](#)

Referrals to several UK police divisions presently await investigation of Dear, Stanistreet and other NUJ employees for criminal activity. Dear and Stanistreet exacerbated the situation by trying to preempt criminal proceedings. They have orchestrated a string of sycophants who have convened a National Executive Council committee hearing using jurisdictional arbitrage in violation of NUJ rules and UK laws.

[\[Law Enforcement Railroad\]](#)

Dear, Stanistreet and Fitzpatrick have abused process by ignoring that the issues effectively became sub judice after police referral. Those referrals will now involve investigation by Independent Police Complaints Commission (UK) and Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service (Scotland) due to dereliction by, and alleged collusion among, NUJ officials and UK police officers.

[\[A Patent Stitch-up\]](#)

[\[NUJ Abuse of Process\]](#)

[\[Position Paper\]](#)

© Copyright 2010 by Paul Trummel
All Rights Reserved: 01 Oct 10/09:01
Edition: #880-36-22/10-1006-0749
Feedback: Webspinner@ContraCabal.org